

Secondary I Science and Technology Master Notebook Assessment Rubric

file: Introduction/learning

Name: _____ Class _____

Specific Area of Master Notebook	Characteristics of A-Quality Work (4 points)	Characteristics of B-Quality Work (3 points)	Characteristics of C- Quality Work (2 points)	Characteristics of D-Quality Work (1 point)	Characteristics of F-Quality Work (0 point)
Filing System	All course materials are filed in the appropriate section according to system shown in class.	Most materials are filed in the appropriate section according to system shown in class. A few items are misfiled or missing.	Only some of the materials are filed in the appropriate section according to system shown in class. Many items are misfiled or unfiled.	Master notebook functions only to hold the assemblage of course materials. No system of filing is practiced.	No master notebook is in use.
Chronology and Identification	All course materials are dated and in chronological order within their appropriate section.	Most course materials are dated and in chronological order within their appropriate section.	Only some course materials are dated and in chronological order within their appropriate section.	Few course materials are dated and in chronological order within the notebook.	No master notebook is in use.

Shake Test: ____/2

Filing/Organization

Master Notebook Mark: ____/10

Parent/Caregiver Signature: _____

Binder Organization Stencil
VARK Stencil
Mindfulness/Brain Science Stencil
Bubbleology Stencil
SI Stencil, Control and Variables Stencil & Hypothesis Stencil
Hilroy Copy Books	